INTRODUCTION

Cuatrecasas, Gonçalves Pereira Brussels was a pioneer in internationalizing the Firm and handles all affairs relating to the European Union (EU) and its institutions. A history of diligence and results since 1986 endorses the work of the team of experts in competition law and community affairs in the EU capital, led by partner Cani Fernández.

Multiculturalism, the ability to work in several languages, a deep understanding of EU legislation and institutions, and relations with officials whose decision making affects businesses across the EU, are some of the attributes of the lawyers that make up Cuatrecasas, Gonçalves Pereira Brussels.

The office, located at 60 Cortenbergh Avenue, has successfully defended the interests of our clients in recent years.
