INTRODUCTION

Multinational companies are increasingly considering London as the center of their European operations and as a launching pad into European markets. Cuatrecasas, Gonçalves Pereira London offers these companies high-quality advice, particularly on all aspects of Spanish and Portuguese law, for their projected business undertakings.

Our experienced lawyers work closely with clients and outside counsel to quickly and efficiently conclude transactions. Our network of offices ensures local knowledge and understanding of the law affecting Spain, Portugal and Latin America. We combine this knowledge with extensive experience working with large multinationals, financial institutions and venture capital funds, having acquired a deep understanding of their business sectors.

With a complete team of lawyers and support staff, our London office is the gateway to Cuatrecasas, Gonçalves Pereira's know-how and experience worldwide.
