INTRODUCTION

Cuatrecasas, Gonçalves Pereira is present in Brazil through its office in Sao Paulo. From this office, the lawyers offer highly specialized advice on investment and partnership projects in the region, and monitoring existing investments, as well as on all of the financial aspects and activities related to clients' transactions. Therefore, Cuatrecasas, Gonçalves Pereira Sao Paulo symbolizes the Firm's international commitment as well as its goals of effectively servicing clients and meeting their needs.

The office offers Spanish and Portuguese companies speed, quality and a local presence in planning and developing their businesses and operations in Brazil, thus positioning Brazilian investments as a natural port of entry into Europe.

Cuatrecasas, Gonçalves Pereira works closely with its clients, helping them understand and adapt to the legal field in which they will do business, thanks to its lawyers' experience; the integration of diverse legal teams with the most qualified Brazilian lawyers; and in-depth knowledge of the business environment, the complex tax system, the institutions, and the most efficient ways to implement and do business in Brazil.
