INTRODUCTION

From its office in Seville, Cuatrecasas, Gonçalves Pereira, Olivencia-Ballester coordinates the firm's services in Andalusia. The office was established after the prestigious firm Olivencia-Ballester, founded in 1960, merged with Cuatrecasas, Gonçalves Pereira to offer the Andalusian business world support and counsel in all legal specialties.

The Seville office, led by Luis Olivencia, consults with Manuel Olivencia, the esteemed chairman of the firm's Academic Committee, composed of many business law professors, all distinguished in their respective fields.

Cuatrecasas, Gonçalves Pereira, Olivencia-Ballester works in all specialties of business law. With broad experience in business law and arbitration, it is one of the most reputable law firms in Andalusia.
