A different work approach

Talent

We capture and retain the best talent by (i) offering 41,000 hours of training every year, (ii) promoting female talent, and (iii) implementing a program for flexible and remote working.

Experience

With over 19 specialties, we advise on all areas of business law. The leading international directories position the firm in band 1 for most practice areas.

Client focus

Our Knowledge and Innovation Group, made up of a team of over 40 academics, lawyers and specialists, offers our clients services adapted to their needs, including updates on legal developments.

Innovation

We apply cutting-edge technology, and lean and project management methods in our processes to foster collaboration across disciplines and the exchange of client-focused solutions.

Disruptive thinking

We were the first European law firm to create a startup accelerator and a specialist investment vehicle in legaltech companies. Three editions and 20 projects is proof of our vision of the future.

Regular legal updates

We regularly update our clients on the legal developments relevant to them, by organizing training sessions and events, and sending newsletters and publications.
