I. Interruption of written prior hearings deadlines to draft resolutions of the Portuguese Data Protection Supervisory Authority

The Portuguese Data Protection Supervisory Authority ("CNPD"), considering the "state of alert and the measures adopted by the Portuguese government" and "considering the guidelines of the public health authorities to reduce the risk of contamination of the Covid-19," has interrupted all deadlines related to prior written hearings to draft resolutions until the exceptional period that Portugal is going through due to the Covid-19 pandemic is declared over.

The CNPD also determined that the deadlines established in the drafts, as they were interrupted, begin to count again on the working day following the official publication of the declaration that determines the end of the exceptional period.
